Get Involved and Help the Central Florida Chapter

Ensure Rejuvenating Success!

We Need You!

If you have been wondering how to get more involved with our Chapter, now is your chance. Taking advantage of one of our Chapter’s leadership opportunities is critical to the continued growth and success of the Central Florida (CFL) Chapter. Volunteering your time and expertise to focus on specific initiatives, issues and programs of importance to our industry, as well as meeting the needs of our membership, are crucial. Through your continued involvement and support, you can help us reach some of our future goals of regional program development, Certification and scholarships for national events.

Our Chapter goal is to provide clinical research professionals in the Central Florida region a means for professional interaction, professional development, and networking, and to provide ACRP benefits at the local level. Without your support and continued involvement, we cannot function as a Chapter. Together we can accomplish common goals and achieve mutual benefits through enthusiastic support of our Chapter.
