

Pointing and Naming

Directions:

- Point out interesting and useful objects.
Example: truck or car
"There is a truck. What color is the truck?"
- Name the objects as you point them out to your child.

Questions:

- What color is the car?
- What sound does a dog make, you can help your child out by saying woof-woof.
- How many birds did you see outside today?

These are just some examples to ask children while playing the pointing and naming game.

Materials:

Items around your home
Examples: books, toys, dog etc.

This activity targets: Language development