

CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER
HILLCREST
La Verne, California

The Aspen Leadership Group is proud to partner with Hillcrest in the search for a Chief Development Officer.

Reporting to the President of Hillcrest, the Chief Development Officer will manage the development department in order to provide an effective, full-scale, fundraising and community relations programs for Hillcrest. The Chief Development Officer will create and realize a multi-year plan to raise sufficient funds to cover the charitable and capital needs of Hillcrest as well as plan specialized events (mixers, dinners, programs, etc.) to educate and instill within donors a desire to support Hillcrest and its various causes.

Hillcrest's mission, vision, and values make it a hallmark for senior living in Southern California. Hillcrest provide residents with an enriched life experience while offering them more control over their future health care needs and services.

Hillcrest's roots were planted in 1947, when La Verne residents partnered with the Church of the Brethren to create a retirement home for the community. With six-and-a-half acres and a little good fortune, Hillcrest provided La Verne's seniors with ten cottages, a chapel, and manor.

Over the years, Hillcrest has evolved with the times, growing to accommodate healthcare needs and a rising population. The property now spans more than 50 acres and has undergone numerous upgrades, replacements, and additions. The community now includes The Village Center, a progressive Aquatic and Fitness Center, the Dean Kieffaber Interfaith Chapel with its beautiful hand-carved oak doors, new residential homes in Pinecrest, Birch Court, Maple Court, and The Village Suites. Hillcrest maintains first-rate healthcare facilities to offer services that fit the needs of each resident. Just minutes from downtown La Verne, Hillcrest's trees and gardens blend beautifully with the surrounding neighborhood in an environment as active and diverse as its residents.

A bachelor's degree is required for this position as is at least five years of experience in fundraising management, including major and planned giving. All applications must be accompanied by a letter of application and a résumé.
