

VICE PRESIDENT FOR DEVELOPMENT

Fuller Theological Seminary (Pasadena, CA)

Fuller Theological Seminary seeks an innovative, forwarding-thinking development professional to serve as Vice President for Development. In the 70 years since its founding, Fuller Theological Seminary has become a place of rich diversity and theological leadership beyond what its founders could have ever imagined. Now the largest multid denominational seminary in the world, Fuller's more than 3,500 students come from 90 countries and 110 denominations. For more information about Fuller Theological Seminary, please visit www.fuller.edu.

Reporting to the Chief of Philanthropy/Executive Director of The Fuller Foundation, the Vice President for Development provides leadership and oversight to all Development resources and fundraising efforts, with responsibility for development and implementation of a comprehensive, sustainable funding strategy. The VP will oversee Fuller's upcoming Capital Campaign. The successful candidate will have broad based development experience in higher education with at least ten years of fundraising in roles of increasing scope and responsibility. Prior experience in managing a large and complex campaign is strongly preferred. Candidates should have demonstrated success in creating and managing a comprehensive development program along with a strong track record in major gift cultivation and solicitation. The successful candidate will have experience working collaboratively with a nonprofit Board. A bachelor's degree is required; a master's degree is preferred.

Fuller Theological Seminary has retained Morris & Berger to conduct the Vice President for Development search. To view the full position description and apply, please submit application, including resume and a letter of interest, in confidence to Morris & Berger through their website: <http://morrisberger.com/position.php?id=2100>