

Organizational Overview

Since 1995, Big Brothers Big Sisters Northwest Arkansas, one of the regions oldest mentoring organizations, has been transforming lives through friendship. We match children to adult mentors in our community, through our site-based and community-based programs.

Opportunity

Big Brothers Big Sisters is seeking an Executive Director to champion our mission in the community.

The Executive Director position is an exciting opportunity for a dynamic leader and experienced organizational manager to lead BBBSNWA into its next phase of growth and impact. With primary responsibility for overall organizational leadership and management, the Executive Director will play a key role in developing the organizational strategy and vision, working in close partnership with the Board, staff and community stakeholders. In order to execute towards that strategy on a daily basis, the Executive Director will focus on external relation, fundraising, and internal management and leadership.

In the past three years, BBBSNWA has experience tremendous growth, both financially and programmatically. A new satellite office, a new program partnership with the University of Arkansas, and a new innovative entrepreneurship program, has helped increase the organizations profile and impact in our region. The Board of Directors is seeking a dynamic individual who will be a champion for our mission while being driven by results and excellent performance metrics.

Salary range: $60-65,000 - including 401K and healthcare benefits.

To apply, please send resume and cover letter, Attention: Board Chair, kerry.robinson@walmart.com.