As a nationwide hub of knowledge and understanding about Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD), Autism Canada has worked collaboratively with provincial and territorial organizations, associations and societies to champion ASD priorities since 1976.

Autism Canada is poised and ready for growth. As general knowledge about autism and the issues facing the ASD community become more widespread, Autism Canada is ready to solidify their position as a leader in the area of autism and are looking for an experienced Executive Director to take the lead on delivering strong income streams from fundraising and other activities.

The ideal applicant for this role will be driven and passionate, with lived or working experience in an organization that supports people with autism or other developmental disorders.

In return they can offer you the opportunity to lead an organization ready to flourish while offering you a great compensation package with benefits and the flexibility of being able to work from home – just think about what you can do with the time you'll save not commuting!
