

Southern Alberta AFP Conference Bursary Application

GUIDELINES FOR ELIGIBILITY

The Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) supports fundraising professionals through education and training. The Southern Alberta Chapter of AFP wishes to increase accessibility to educational programs by offering financial reimbursement to individuals to attend courses, conferences, and workshops relevant to fundraisers.

The Board of Directors of the Southern Alberta Chapter AFP has made available a maximum of up to four (4) scholarships for 2019 -2020. (AFP International Conference - $750, Banff Compass - $750, Western Canadian Conference - $750 and 1 for 'Other' - $750)

The intent of these bursary's is to encourage attendance at fundraising related conferences and support the professional development of our members. To qualify, applicants must meet the following criteria and they must submit the completed application form as instructed by the date required.

- Applicant must be a current Southern Alberta Chapter AFP member in good standing at time of application deadline.
- Applicant has not previously attended the conference they desire to attend prior to this application.
- Applicant must be employed as a full-time paid Fund Development professional or be employed in an organization whereby a portion of their job is to oversee Fund Development activities.
- The applicant is required to provide a brief summary report on the conference attended outlining the benefits and value of having attended. This report is due within thirty days (30) of the conclusion of the conference. This report may be used by the Chapter to promote the Bursary program or particular conference in the future.
