Chief Development Officer Position Posting

The Opportunity

GoochlandCares’ next Chief Development Officer (CDO) will have the opportunity to join an established and respected organization built on the passion and commitment to provide basic needs, such as food, clothing and healthcare, to neighbors in need in Goochland. The CDO is an essential member of the Senior Leadership Team, working closely with the CEO and Board to build a comprehensive development program that helps ensure the long-term sustainability of the organization.

Goochland Cares Overview
GoochlandCares Free Clinic and Family Services is a private, multi-service nonprofit serving the community in varying capacities since 1952. Our mission is to provide basic human services and healthcare to our Goochland neighbors in need. We envision an equitable community in which all persons have their basic needs met, empowering them to lead lives of self-dignity and well-being. We promise to deliver quality, client-centered services with compassion and dignity.

GoochlandCares’ programs and services are centralized in a high-quality building which was built in 2018 in Goochland, located approximately 30 minutes from Richmond, Virginia. This building was the result of a highly successful capital campaign that made the new building possible. This campaign demonstrated the high-level of community support for GoochlandCares. Position Overview
The Chief Development Officer participates as a member of the Senior Leadership Team (SLT). The CDO shall, in concert with other members of the SLT, provide leadership, strategic direction, management, and coordination for all fundraising and communications efforts at GoochlandCares (GC). The mission of this role is to create an annual strategy to promote and increase the organization’s support from individuals, corporations, foundations, and other sources. The CDO oversees all internal development and communications functions and serves as a point of contact for all external engagement opportunities.

The CDO works closely with the Board of Directors (Board), Major Gifts Officer (MGO), and other staff and key volunteers to achieve the organization's fundraising goals. The MGO is responsible for identification and cultivation of the major donors, while the CDO is responsible for logistics and execution of the fundraising strategy.
Essential Job Functions
The Chief Development Officer is responsible for:

1. Development Leadership and Management
   a. Prioritizes donor cultivation, stewardship, and appreciation.
   b. Builds and manages a portfolio of approximately 50 donors and funders. (The MGO serves as a front-line fundraiser of high-level supporters by creating, managing, and securing gifts from a portfolio of 150+ current and prospective mid and major donors.)
   c. In conjunction with the CEO, establishes development strategies, including an annual plan, and administers and oversees the implementation of all fundraising efforts.
   d. Works in close partnership with the MGO to optimize the identification, cultivation, and solicitation of individuals, corporations, and foundations.
   e. Works closely with community partners and businesses to increase visibility of GoochlandCares.
   f. Provides detailed fundraising progress reports to the CEO, Board, and the Fundraising Committee.
   g. Develops and maintains relationships on behalf of the organization, connecting others to the mission of GoochlandCares and educating the public to enhance fundraising efforts.
   h. Collaborates with other organizations with similar missions to leverage resources that benefit clients.

2. Personnel Management
   a. Directly supervises and supports the Development Team to ensure the optimization of each team member.
   b. Provides ongoing performance feedback and direction to development staff.
   c. Educates and empowers staff to enhance their effectiveness in development activities.
   d. Participates in supervisory group meetings, providing support and input on supervisory issues and upcoming training topics.

3. Communications and Grant Management
   a. Oversees production of all direct mail letters, case statements, grants, brochures, and sponsorship proposals to facilitate donor engagement.
   b. Oversees the grant process ensuring accountability to funding entities and maximizing revenue from grants and foundations.
   c. Ensures all internal and external communications are focused on quality, accuracy, and effectiveness.

4. Board Relations
   a. Participates in the orientation of new board members annually.
   b. Shares the development plan with the Board including specifics on Board Members’ individual responsibilities and involvement.
   c. Works with and supports the Board Fundraising Committee.

5. Financial
   a. Develops and manages the annual budget for the Development department throughout the year.
   b. In conjunction with other Development staff, leads development activities to ensure the organization has sufficient funds to carry out its mission.
6. Community Engagement
   a. Actively seeks and maintains positive relationships with business partners, governmental entities, donors, volunteers, the community at large, and other public agencies to increase knowledge and enhance partnerships.
   b. Supports new and ongoing community engagement events.
   c. Ensures all Development efforts are trauma-informed, client-centered, and mission-focused.

The new CDO will work on-site a significant portion of the week and must be able to travel to meet with donors and other stakeholders.
