"Life's persistent and most urgent question is 'What are you doing for others?'"

- Martin Luther King Jr.

Did You Know?

Top five reasons why people give:

1. To meet critical, basic needs
2. To give back to society by making the community a better place
3. A belief that those with more should help those with less
4. To bring about a desired impact or result
5. A request for money was made

Request for Proposals: Professional Development Programs for the Aloha Chapter

The AFP Aloha Chapter seeks proposals for educational programs for its 2017 program year. Our chapter is located in Honolulu, Hawaii and consists of 200 members with a range of experience and organizations represented.

Program topics should appeal to fund development professionals, executive directors and CEOs, board members and volunteers.

Topics range from the science of fundraising strategies to leadership skills, current events affecting the field, the use of technology and other areas of interest to our membership.
