

Front Range Source Café
“Locally grown, sustainable choices for board members”

Reservations are required! Before you eat, you must make your own significant gift and participate in planning to ensure the organization’s financial future.

Appetizers

- Make thank you calls
- Attend events and house parties (in person or virtual)
- Speak at your house of worship or school about the organization
- Bring friends to events (in person or virtual)
- Forward e-mails and news links to friends
- Connect friends on Facebook or Twitter with your organization

Main Course

- Sign appeal letters
- Serve as a donor “testimonial”
- Give friends a tour of your organization’s facility (social distant, if necessary!)
- Ask for a gift to the organization for a birthday, wedding, or holiday gift

Dessert

- Host a house party or virtual event
- Connect the organization with contacts you have in business or philanthropy
- Join the executive director or staff on personal solicitations
- Let your friends know you’ve put the organization in your estate plans
- Recruit businesses as sponsors
- Lead a group of volunteers to plan a fundraising drive

This Month’s Special: Ideas for a COVID-19 Menu

- Write thank you notes
- Make thank you calls
- Provide testimonials about the organization – video and written
- Hold small gatherings of friends – Zoom Happy Hours!
- Share news about the organization through social media