Elizabeth has been with the Community Foundation of Orange and Sullivan County since 2013 and currently serves as the President and CEO after working as their Director of Development for 18 months. She works with the Board of Directors, professional advisors and volunteers to plan, structure, implement and monitor an effective development program that will increase endowed and non-endowed assets, develop and maintain good relationships with nonprofit organizations, and steward current and prospective donors. During her time with the Foundation, charitable assets have grown to nearly $30million, with over $11million in charitable grants and scholarships from their 270+ funds being distributed back into the community since inception.

Elizabeth is an Orange County native with a strong background in development and marketing having worked at Inspire – Orange County Cerebral Palsy Association and the Town of Wallkill Boys & Girls Club prior to joining the staff at the Community Foundation. She is a 2004 graduate of Emerson College with a degree in Marketing Communications. Elizabeth is a 2008 graduate of Leadership Orange and obtained her Certified Fundraising Executive certification in 2014. In addition to her professional duties, Elizabeth is involved in many community-based organizations including serving as Vice President of the Board of Directors of Safe Harbors of the Hudson, Immediate Past-President of the Mid-Hudson Valley Association of Fundraising Professionals and is a Trustee of the Orange Regional Medical Center Foundation. She also maintains memberships in the Junior League of Orange County (Sustainer), Hospice of Orange and Sullivan Auxiliary and the Middletown University Club. She currently resides in the City of Newburgh with her husband Bill Fioravanti, their daughter Mira and stepdaughter Caterina.
