

Terrel White bio

Terrel White, a native of Detroit, MI, is currently the Philanthropy Officer at Wayne State University's College of Nursing. Terrel holds his Master's of Administration, focusing on Nonprofit Administration and Philanthropy, and his Master's of Social Work, focusing on Social Change, Innovation, and Policy Advocacy. An intersectional scholar with a body of work concentrating on the intersection of LGBTQIA and Black identities. As a former NSWM Policy Fellow, he presented on economic sustainability and supportive housing measures for trans women of color. Other passion and work areas include JEDI, Leadership, Strategic Planning, and Team Building work.

Photo(s):

