

Becky Dennis-Hulway Bio

Becky Dennis-Hulway is a fundraiser and arts and culture administrator in Metro Detroit. She currently works as the Senior Major Gifts Officer at The Henry Ford in Dearborn, MI. Becky has previously held fundraising, alumni relations, and donor relations positions at the College of Engineering and College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at Wayne State University. Her life before fundraising involved stage managing and arts administration positions at InterAct Theatre Company in Philadelphia, Trinity Repertory Theatre in Providence, RI, and New York Stage and Film, where she worked alongside creators like Lin-Manuel Miranda and Steve Martin as they developed new plays and musicals. Becky received her B.A. from Kalamazoo College and her M.P.A. from Wayne State University.