

Ebony Robinson Bio

Ebony Robinson is a Senior Director at CCS Fundraising, where she leads feasibility studies and campaign management for mission-driven organizations. She supports clients by designing strategic tools, analyzing donor data, conducting stakeholder interviews, and crafting compelling case materials and major gift strategies. Her passion for philanthropy is rooted in a community-focused upbringing grounded in racial, economic, and social justice. Prior to joining CCS Fundraising, Ebony served as Director of Corporate Giving at United Way of Washtenaw County, where she managed a diverse portfolio of corporate partners and collaborated with C-suite leaders to align giving with community impact. Ebony is currently supporting a client in Detroit and is known for her collaborative leadership and commitment to excellence. Ebony holds a B.S. from Indiana State University, an M.A. from California Baptist University and currently serves as Board Chair of NEW in Ann Arbor.