

Steve Zoski Bio

Steve Zoski has served as Alumni & Donor Relations Officer for the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at Wayne State University since June 2018. When not studying for his MBA courses, Steve spends his spare time freelance writing for magazines (szoski.com/writing) and adventuring with his wife, cat, and two dogs. Before joining Wayne State, Steve was the Manager of Volunteers at the Michigan Science Center (2015-2018) and a Campaign Specialist at the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society of Michigan, both nonprofits. After graduating from the University of Michigan in 2013, Steve processed presidential mail as an Associate at the White House – Office of Presidential Correspondence. He believes storytelling and relationship-building are the essential attributes to resource development and fundraising
