

AFP GDC Virtual Town Hall June 11, 2020

- 00:42:58 Sarah Dysinger: If you want to share something but are uncomfortable speaking you can put it in the chat and we will read it for you. As always, feel free to unmute yourself to speak at any time!
- 00:48:06 Anna Romund: Just a thought - perhaps a survey of AFP members on how they stand on the issue? Report stats on the website.
- 00:49:02 Anna Romund: Losing 25% would be tragic.
- 00:52:44 Christa Williams: Melissa, that sample document would be very helpful. Thank you!
- 00:53:16 Debbie: I agree. I hope you can email those documents to us.
- 00:53:32 Anna Romund: yes, please
- 00:54:48 Sarah Dysinger: I will have Melissa email me the document if she is able to and email it to you all!
- 00:55:03 Debbie: Thank you!
- 00:55:34 Anna Romund: Perfect. Thank You.
- 00:56:57 Anna Romund: Zoom meetings
- 00:59:51 Anna Romund: For work or personal?
- 01:00:36 Christina McMullen: Not yet in Ypsilanti. I work at the Ypsi District Library. We are opening part-time for admin staff on Monday. We are very cautious.
- 01:01:25 Anna Romund: I continue to see the rolling cancellation of events.
- 01:01:29 Christa Williams: Ascension Providence Foundation is working from home until Labor Day. We have started to cautiously meet with donors; completely dependent on their comfort level and ours.
- 01:02:38 Anna Romund: By phone, yes.
- 01:02:59 Debbie: phone and email.
- 01:04:16 Anna Romund: love that idea!
- 01:04:50 Dawn Barrack, Alternatives For Girls: Love the idea of bringing a program staff member to my weekly Development Team meeting!
- 01:04:57 Christa Williams: Many of the phone calls I've had with donors have been of a more personal nature. I call to find out how they're doing and we don't necessarily talk about initiatives, but more about how the challenging times are impacting their lives.

01:06:22 Anna Romund: yes

01:07:34 Christa Williams: Ascension St. John Providence Foundations held a virtual meeting explaining the impact of the CARES Act.

01:08:37 Anna Romund: please share link for the kite fest

01:12:03 Carol Lessure: You can learn more at: <https://grievewell.com/kitefestival2020/> There are six elements: Kite Decorating Contest, Frustrationless Flyers, Kite Flying 6/20 from 1 - 4 pm at Lillie Park in Pittsfield Township, Fly and Remember Zoom Call at 11 am on 6/20, a Memorial Wall, and Changes Kite Activity (by Ele's Place).

01:12:36 Christina McMullen: Washtenaw Literacy will be holding their October fundraiser virtually this year. Greater Milan Area Community Foundation is still planning on holding their gala in March. But, I'm not holding my breath on that.

01:14:18 Christina McMullen: I'm really worried about virtual event burn out. I love the idea of incorporating more virtual activities into in-person events.

01:15:05 Debbie: online auction - what program have you used?

01:15:28 Anna Romund: Ebay for nonprofits is one option

01:16:39 Steve Ragan: wedocharityauctions.com

01:19:03 Anna Romund: Biking

01:19:06 Carol Lessure: Please send me ideas on wires services to use for our press release - small budget please! carol@grievewell.com

01:19:11 Judy Wernette: Meditation

01:19:22 Christa Williams: Go for a daily walk; yoga

01:19:29 Christina McMullen: Take back your weekends. I've been taking a lot of walks. Gardening.

01:19:36 Carol Lessure: Biking, gardening, and big hugs with the three people that share my home.

01:19:52 Karen Shellie: making sure to take breaks during the day

01:20:31 H Lynn: Ascension offered a webinar by Cy Wakeman: The Reality of Happiness at Work; it was really good.

01:20:49 Sarah Dysinger: I will be launching a poll momentarily regarding todays session. if the poll does not pop up on your screen go to "view" at the top and you should be able to view it. Thank you all for attending!

01:22:42 Anna Romund: Thank you, Steve and Melissa.

01:23:07 Christina McMullen: Thank you so much.

01:23:09 Christa Williams: Thank you Steve & Melissa!!

01:23:17 Karen Shellie: Thank you!
