

Michael Montgomery is a principal in Montgomery Consulting of Huntington Woods. The firm specializes in strategic fundraising consulting. He also teaches in the Department of Health and Human Services at the University of Michigan-Dearborn and is the author of the annual Michigan Fundraising Climate Survey (2012 to-date).

As a fundraising consultant, he has worked on more than $1 billion in campaign and project activity including on some of this region's most challenging efforts. His comments on fundraising and related issues have appeared in media outlets, including: Chronicle of Philanthropy, NPR, Forbes, FastCompany, Chicago Tribune, Consumer Reports, Money, US News and World Report, The Independent (UK), Detroit Free Press, Detroit News, MiBiz, and Crain's Detroit Business.

At the start of his career, Mike was a U.S. diplomat specializing in economic and commercial affairs with assignments to Washington DC, Bogota, Colombia, and temporary duty in Tokyo, Japan. He is a former member of the Cranbrook Schools Board of Governors and of the Michigan Economic Developers Association's Board of Directors. He holds an M.A. from the University of Michigan and an A.B. from Columbia University.