

Sharon Tiknis is Executive Vice President and East Division Manager for The Alford Group, a national, full-service consulting firm serving the nonprofit sector. Sharon has consulted with several Michigan organizations and held leadership positions at nonprofit organizations for over 35 years including Central Michigan University. Her work as an executive and consultant has resulted in raising hundreds of millions of dollars to meet community needs through philanthropic initiatives.