

Mary Lee Walsh is a values-driven professional with 15+ years of building partnerships and nurturing community, donor, and government relationships. As the Alumni Relations & Donor Relations Coordinator at Bay Path University, she is a collaborative leader and team member who creates inclusive, positive cultures through thoughtful engagement, valuing others, and facilitating enjoyable team bonding exercises that foster long-term relationships.

She is passionate about organizing community initiatives and galvanizing support for grassroots and large-scale campaigns.