

Nora Gorenstein is an executive leader applying advanced writing skills, design thinking, and decades of experience as an educator to create change in the nonprofit sector. In her role as the Chief Executive Officer of the Jewish Federation of Western Massachusetts, she works toward sustainable social change and community growth in Western Massachusetts and the world, with a focus on the Jewish community and our friends and neighbors.