

Capital Campaign Manager Erie, Pennsylvania

The Sisters of St. Joseph of Northwestern Pennsylvania invites nominations and applications for the position of Capital Campaign Manager. This individual will be responsible for managing and cultivating fundraising efforts to support the residential and medical needs of the Sisters, as well as the ongoing sponsored ministries of the Sisters of St. Joseph. This position reports to the President and will be a crucial team member working with the Sisters, Board members, staff and volunteers.

The Sisters of St. Joseph of Northwestern Pennsylvania is a women's religious organization that came to the Erie Diocese more than 150 years ago. The sisters' presence has moved beyond hospitals and classrooms and includes pastoral, social and liturgical ministries in Catholic parishes, global mission projects, outreach to the elderly, campus ministry, youth ministry and numerous other efforts. Today, more than 350 sisters, agrégées and associates continue to carry out the Sisters of St. Joseph of Northwestern Pennsylvania mission of unity of neighbor with neighbor and neighbor with God.

A Bachelor's degree is required, CFRE certification is a plus, with 4-to-6 years' related experience in Development and Campaign Management. The successful candidate for this position will be self-motivated, people-oriented, collaborative, diplomatic, and capable of program development maximizing available resources. To view the job description for this position, please click here:
Capital Campaign Manager

The Sisters of St. Joseph of Northwestern Pennsylvania is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Our staff embraces diversity and sees every employee as a valued member of our team. We offer a competitive compensation ($60K-$70K) and benefit package. This is a wonderful opportunity to work for a mission-based organization.

Apply to Director of Human Resources for the Sisters of St. Joseph of Northwestern Pennsylvania. Download and fill out our job application: job app (you can directly edit this pdf) and send it to HR@ssjerie.org