

Major Gifts Officer (40 hrs/wk)

Bible2School, a non-profit teaching the Bible to children attending public school and to equipping communities across the nation to do the same, is looking for a Major Gifts Officer to join their team! The team member will identify, engage, cultivate, solicit, and steward current and prospective financial partners in expanding their financial support of Bible2School, in order to reach children for Christ.

The Major Gifts Officer duties include, but are not limited to:

- Manage assigned accounts of financial partners and prospects with intent to form deep relationships
- Responsible for an annual fundraising goal
- Manage and implement Financial Partner Engagement Strategy
- Implement campaigns to identify, cultivate, solicit and steward financial partners at the large giving level
- Work with leadership to identify appropriate financial partners

The ideal team member will possess the following qualities:

- Can articulate an identifiable salvation experience
- Lives out a pattern of spiritual development characterized by prayer, Bible study, stewardship, and regular participation in church
- Demonstrates Christian character and high moral values
- Demonstrates a commitment to ministry and encouragement of others toward the same
- Supports Bible2School's vision and mission
- Shows a desire to grow, develop, and mature, both spiritually and professionally
- Displays a spirit of cooperation and willingness to serve on a team
- Minimum 3-5 years of experience in fundraising
- Previous experience working with a nonprofit
- Able to clearly communicate and articulate ideas and concepts in both written and verbal form
- Available to travel for face to face meetings, which may require evening or weekend hours
- Able to present both in a public forum and a one-to-one meeting
- Able to operate with limited direction and effectively manage priorities, tasks and time
- Possess competent computer skills (Internet/email, Word, Excel, Google, Salesforce)

Salary Range: $80,000 - $120,000

To Apply

Interested candidates should submit a resume to Stephanie Smith at stephaniesmith@bible2school.com