

The Aims Community College Foundation

Foundation Corporate and Individual Fundraising Development Manager

The Aims Community College Foundation, based in Greeley, CO is seeking a highly qualified Foundation Corporate and Individual Fundraising Development Manager. This position is for an experienced Development professional seeking an opportunity to build financial support for student success at Aims.

The application period is open until August 15, 2025 and interested candidates are encouraged to review the minimum qualifications and job description by visiting the Aims Career Center link.