

J. Ryann Peyton

Ryann serves as the Director of the Colorado Attorney Mentoring Program (CAMP), a program of the Colorado Supreme Court. A former litigator and a seasoned consultant and advocate on professionalism, diversity, and equity in the legal field, Ryann is a frequent commentator, presenter, and lecturer having contributed to the Denver Post, Law Week Colorado, Denver Business Journal, KDVR Fox 31, Rocky Mountain PBS, and Colorado Public Radio. Prior to joining CAMP, Ryann focused their law practice on civil litigation with an emphasis on LGBTQ+ families and civil rights.

Ryann is co-founder of RANGE Consulting, a social enterprise focused on providing employers with strategies for cultivating LGBTQ+ workplace inclusivity. RANGE is Colorado's only consulting organization dedicated solely to the needs of LGBTQ+ employees and the workplaces in which they are employed. Partnering with hundreds of corporations, non-profits, and government entities across the state, RANGE assists employers in creating inclusive policies and systems, solving common equity related workplace challenges, and maintaining legal compliance.

Ryann has been routinely recognized for their legal practice, most recently earning the American Bar Association Rosner & Rosner Young Lawyer Professionalism award and the Colorado Bar Association's Outstanding Young Attorney of the Year award. Ryann sits on the boards of the Colorado LGBT Bar Foundation, The Center on Colfax, Alzheimer's Association of Colorado, and Center for Legal Inclusiveness. Ryann was recently appointed as the 2022 President of the Colorado Bar Association. Ryann earned their law degree from the University of St. Thomas School of Law and holds an LLM and undergraduate degree from the University of Denver.
