Join your fundraising friends tomorrow, Friday, November 6th, to talk about how fundraising and nonprofits have shifted and adapted to uncertainty, volatility and the 2020 landscape to continue to provide critical services and further their missions.

Join fundraising experts Scott Lumpkin, Diane Stine, Cindi Graves and Katie Bullock for a panel discussion and Q&A led by Nia Wassink of Nonprofit Reframe podcast fame!

You will come away with ideas and inspiration to continue to adapt and thrive in our continuously changing environments, and have a chance to connect with colleagues near and far.

Join the Celebration on November 13th!

You are cordially invited to attend the 2020 Virtual National Philanthropy Day event!
We'll be broadcasting live at 11:30 am on November 13th from the Seawell Grand Ballroom in the Denver Performing Arts Complex. Governor Jared Polis will be making a special appearance and Mitch Jelniker will again serve as our emcee.

Join us and you will:

- LEARN how individuals, organizations and businesses across Colorado are creating a kinder, more sustainable and just world
- CONNECT with other change makers who care about philanthropy and our vibrant nonprofit sector
- CELEBRATE two youth award winners and 33 honorees and the difference philanthropy makes

Here's the list of winners and click here to register.

Partner Event

Dear Philanthropy…

Kim Tso, a long-time grant writer and founder of Velocity Inc, LLC, sends a letter to philanthropy about the lessons she’s lived and learned working within an inequitable philanthropic system. She addresses the shifting rules and constraints that are put on nonprofits by funders, and asks philanthropy what it really means to do. Read the full letter, We’re Breaking Up: And It’s Not Me, Philanthropy – It’s You.
