Navigating Your Career and Compensation Negotiation

Join us for an engaging panel discussion to learn from experienced nonprofit professionals on how they navigated their career, negotiated their compensation, and advice they would give to those looking to advance their career. Nia Wassink will moderate the discussion with Nina Bodenhamer, Kim Churches, and Patrick Gaines as they share their valuable experience. There will be plenty of time for Q&A too, so please submit your questions early to carson.maczuzak@gmail.com or bring them with you!

Great Philanthropists in History: Madam C.J. Walker

As we shine a brighter light on Black history in the United States during Black History month, let us honor Madam C.J. Walker, an influential philanthropist and first Black woman millionaire in America. A talented entrepreneur, Walker built a business empire and used her fortune to fund scholarships for women at the Tuskegee Institute and also supported the NAACP and the Black YMCA. Learn more about Madam Walker and her influence in Black Philanthropy here, and hear from biographer and professor, Dr. Tyrone Freeman, about her influence in philanthropy here.
