Hybrid Event Season is Coming

The closer we get to event season, the more organizations are considering hybrid events. As you consider a hybrid event, check out The Gala Team's Hybrid Event Tool Kit blog series for insights on considerations for hybrid events. You can read about building your audience, unique considerations in technology, safety and compliance here!

Navigating Career and Compensation – Bring Your Questions!

Join us for an engaging panel discussion to learn from experienced nonprofit professionals on how they navigated their career, negotiated their compensation, and advice they would give to those looking to advance their career.

Nia Wassink will moderate the discussion with Nina Bodenhamer, Kim Churches, and Patrick Gaines as they share their valuable experience. There will be plenty of time for Q&A too, so please submit your question early to carson.maczuzak@gmail.com or bring it with you!

Weaving Planned Giving Into Your Donor Conversations

We've all been there before. We have cultivated and know (or should know) our annual and major gift donors really well. However, we may come to realize that we've never approached the subject of an estate or planned gift and are not sure how to do so now without feeling awkward ... especially in light of the changes in giving and conversations brought on by the pandemic.

Join us and learn how to make the easy introduction to the largest and most impactful gifts our donors will make, and our organizations will experience.
