

Thursday Thoughts

Save the Date!

AFP Colorado's annual conference, Rocky Mountain Philanthropy Institute, is set for September 9th and 10th. Themed "Purpose & Possibility," join like-minded professionals in brushing up on best practices, networking and setting our intentions for fundraising in a post-pandemic era where a world of possibility lies ahead.

SAVE THE DATE:
SEP 9-10, 2021

We are thrilled to be joined by Edgar Villanueva, author of "Decolonizing Wealth" for a fireside chat as our keynote speaker, and renowned scientist and activist Temple Grandin, who, as a featured speaker, will share her wisdom on thinking differently and leadership.

AFP 2021 Mentoring Program - Applications
Due March 5th!

Don't miss out on this year's Mentorship Program! This six-month program is for those looking for a professional mentor to help develop skills, grow their career and expand their professional network. The program will begin in April and run through September, offering the opportunity for professional development, connection and scholarships for future educational events.

The program includes:

- Kick-off virtual happy hour
- One-on-one virtual or in-person mentor/mentee meetings
- Summer Educational happy hour
- Small group mentor/mentee meetings
- Wrap-up celebration happy hour

To learn more or apply to be paired with a mentor OR serve as a mentor, visit AFP Mentorship Program page.

Navigation, Negotiation and Your Career!

Join us for an engaging panel discussion to learn from experienced nonprofit professionals on how they navigated their career, negotiated their compensation, and advice they would give to those looking to advance their career. Nia Wassink will moderate the discussion with Nina Bodenhamer (Director, City Give, City of Fort Collins), Kim Churches (Executive Director, AAUW), and Patrick Gaines (Chief Development Officer, Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver) as they share their valuable experience. There will be plenty of time for Q&A too, so please submit your questions early to carson.maczuzak@gmail.com or bring them with you!

Thursday, March 11th
