Call for Speakers – We Want YOU!

AFP Colorado's annual conference, Rocky Mountain Philanthropy Institute, is a fantastic (virtual) gathering for fundraisers throughout our great state. This year, the conference will be held virtually September 9-10, 2021. Keynote speaker, Edgar Villanueva and featured speaker, Temple Grandin will be joining us as some of the most renowned speakers to participate in RMPI.

JOIN RMPI AS A SPEAKER!
APPLY BY APRIL 9TH

To accompany these thought leaders, we are actively seeking speakers for Rocky Mountain Philanthropy Institute 2021. Speakers receive a complimentary conference registration for both days and an honorarium. You can access the electronic application here. Please submit applications by April 9th. If you are interested in joining this great conference as a speaker, please consider filling out an application!

Mark your calendars and join us for a great conference with endless learning opportunities!

Hurry – Don't Miss Out!

Don't miss out on our March 10th Virtual Education Session, Navigating Your Career and Compensation Negotiation!

Join your fundraising colleagues for an engaging panel discussion on March 10th at 12:00 pm to learn from experienced nonprofit professionals on how they navigated their career, negotiated their compensation, and advice they would give to those looking to advance their career. Nia Wassink will moderate the discussion with Nina Bodenhamer (Director, City Give, City of Fort Collins), Kim Churches (Executive Director, AAUW), and Patrick Gaines (Chief Development Officer, Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver) as they share their valuable experience. There will be plenty of time for Q&A too, so please submit your questions early to carson.maczuzak@gmail.com or bring them with you!
