Hey! Don't Forget To Register For The Planned Giving Education Session!

It's becoming more common for donors to offer charities donations of assets vs. the typical gift of cash or securities. Join us as we uncover the mystery behind planned gifts of complex assets. Johni Hays, J.D. will discuss an array of complex assets, outlining the various tax advantages and disadvantages for the donor and highlighting any issues they may bring to your organization. You'll learn a methodology to determine when a gift of each type makes sense for the donor and your organization.
