Final Call For Rocky Mountain Philanthropy Institute (RMPI) Speaker Applications!

Do you have expertise that can guide, inspire, or inform fundraising professionals? Apply to be a workshop speaker for AFP's fundraising conference, RMPI!

The deadline to submit a speaker application is tomorrow, April 9th. Click here to apply.

RMPI will be held virtually September 9-10, 2021. Speakers receive a complimentary conference registration for both days and an honorarium.

The conference will offer ways to connect and share best practices and strategies, and if you developed ways to thrive in our new normal that could benefit other Colorado fundraisers, we hope you apply!

Hit the Easy Button With These Planned Gifts

It's becoming more common for donors to offer charities donations of assets vs. the typical gift of cash or securities.

Join us as we uncover the mystery behind planned gifts of complex assets.

Johni Hays, J.D. will discuss an array of complex assets, outlining the various tax advantages and disadvantages for the donor and highlighting any issues they may bring to your organization. You'll learn a methodology to determine when a gift of each type makes sense for the donor and your organization.

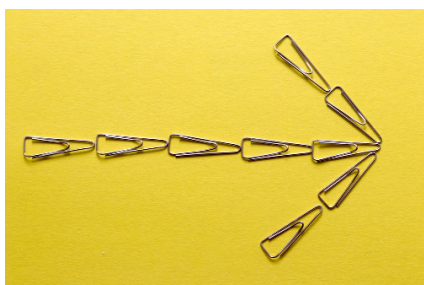

Date: Wednesday, April 21, 2021

Time: 9:00 am - 10:00 am

Cost: $10 for AFP members, $20 for non-members

Partner Event

It is not uncommon for nonprofits to look at volunteers and monetary donors differently. Both provide tremendous value and allow an organization to reach goals and obtain its mission. Oftentimes nonprofits target these donor types differently and design different communication strategies/campaigns between the two groups. Diversifying targeting and campaigns may be beneficial for some organizations, but what happens when a supporter fits into both categories? New data is providing insights into the relationship between volunteers and financial donors. The results may surprise you!
