

Benefits of Serving on a Board

When you serve on a board, you get a wider perspective of nonprofits. You see the organization from a different perspective, you learn about the cause in a different way and you gain an understanding of what your own organization's board members may experience and need to be successful. Serving on a board can also be both professionally and personally fulfilling. Ann Goldman, AFP Colorado Chapter Board Member and Past RMPI Chair shares:

“It is a real honor to serve as an AFP Colorado Chapter board member. This is a hard-working, dedicated group of professionals who really care about supporting fundraisers in their important work. It's been one of the best board experiences I've had in my career.”

RMPI Registration Closes Soon

Rocky Mountain Philanthropy Institute is just one week out! Join us on Zoom September 9 and 10 for thought-provoking conversations with Edgar Villanueva, author of Decolonizing Wealth, and Nadia Hallgren, director of Becoming on Netflix. At RMPI, you'll also:

- be inspired by Farduus Ahmed, a former refugee who became a community activist
- engage in two interactive workshops of your choice
- connect with fundraising peers and leaders across the state
- win prizes and silent auction items from small and BIPOC-owned businesses
- reframe your purpose and think bigger about the possibilities ahead

You can attend RMPI for under $130. Also, we would like to express our thanks to our amazing sponsors.
