

RMPI Scholarship Opportunity!

Did you know that scholarships are available for RMPI, thanks to our sponsor, Community First Foundation?! Savanna Hanson of Boys and Girls Club of Metro Denver was a scholarship recipient at last year's conference and wanted to share what a great experience she had:

"My first experience at RMPI was nothing less than transformative. I got to meet other fundraisers, brush up on best practices and learn from field experts about industry trends. It also helped that my expenses were sponsored by the Community First Foundation scholarship! Here is what I learned at RMPI:

- I'm not alone. Meeting other fundraisers who faced similar struggles helped my self-doubt melt away.
- Networking works. I connected with another attendee and was soon thereafter recruited by her nonprofit. We're colleagues now!
- The Lessons. From collaborative workshops to mind-bending lectures, I walked away with countless revelations that sparked new ideas and refreshed my foundational knowledge."

For those who are on the fence about RMPI, take it from Savanna - apply for the Community First Foundation scholarship before someone else beats you to it! Applications must be submitted by July 9th at 5:00 pm.

Ethics in Fundraising

Our July Educational session will be a free, brown bag lunch discussion addressing some of today's most debated ethical questions in our field. Should your organization accept money from a marijuana company? Can you as a fundraiser accept a personal gift from a donor? What else are you wondering about? Submit your ethical dilemmas via AFP's Facebook page, or send to info@afpcc.org. Then save the date, bring a lunch and join us for this FREE event!
