

Bio: Catherine Bucholz is a Philanthropic Advisor at the NoCo Foundation, where she leads the Community Champions annual giving program and helps donors design charitable giving strategies that reflect their values and goals. She is a Certified 21/64 Advisor and graduate of the Institute for Leaders in Development, with expertise in donor engagement, philanthropic planning, and donor advised funds. Prior to joining the NoCo Foundation staff in 2020, Catherine worked in development with the Grand Canyon Conservancy. She lives in Fort Collins with her family and enjoys hiking, skiing, and exploring Colorado's outdoors.