

Emma Byers brings a background in community engagement, program development, and resource mobilization to her work as Director of Philanthropy at the Craig Hospital Foundation. Emma previously held roles with the University Corporation for Atmospheric Research, Denver Public Schools, and Metropolitan State University of Denver. She earned a master's degree in higher education administration from the University of Denver and a bachelor's degree in psychology from University of Puget Sound. Emma volunteers on The Denver Foundation's Advisory Committee for Community Impact and is also a member of The Denver Foundation's LGBTQ+ Giving Circle. She lives in Denver with her partner and three rambunctious toddlers and loves reading and traveling in her free time.