

Presenter Bios – RMPI 2023

Lauren McClanahan

Lauren Joined Brent's Place in 2021 as the Vice President of Operations and Culture to lead and nurture a strong, diverse, inclusive, and people-focused culture through the leadership of People Operations, Family Support team, and Facility Operations. Prior to joining Brent's Place, Lauren was the COO at Energy Outreach Colorado (EOC) and provided oversight of Information Technology, People Operations, Admin, and Finance. Lauren also put her people-focused management skills to work with Denver Public Schools Family and Community Engagement (FACE) building organizational capacity, overseeing staff, professional development and engaging community partners. Lauren has worked and managed in various capacities in the fields of education, non-profit fundraising, human services and technology. Lauren holds a BA in Human Development and Family Studies from Cornell University and an MA degree in Communications from the University of Denver.

Annie Tutt, MPH, CFRE

Annie Tutt is a Certified Fund Raising Executive with nearly 20 years of experience. Annie attended the University of Florida and began her fundraising career at Shands Children's Hospital at UF. Following her time in healthcare fundraising, Annie served the northeast Florida community through fund development roles at Ronald McDonald House, Jacksonville University and United Way of Northeast Florida. In Jacksonville, Annie was also an avid volunteer and member of the Women's Giving Alliance. She has also served as a nonprofit consultant since August 2021.

Following her family's move to Colorado, Annie joined the Brent's Place team in December 2022 to support major gift fundraising in the role of Philanthropy Director.