2020 AFP Board Retreat Report

The 2020 AFP Board Retreat brought together returning and new board members to collaborate, reflect, brainstorm and plan for the upcoming year. It will be another great year of educational programming, networking and social events and thought-provoking discussions. Our first luncheon of the year will be The 2020 Economic Outlook for the U.S. and Colorado, presented by Dr. Richard WobbeKind and in collaboration with CPGR, on Wednesday, January 8th. Register today!

Keep updated on all events through Thursday Thoughts and the AFP Colorado Chapter website.

If you have questions for board members, or are interested in serving on the board, please email info@afpcc.org for more information.

2019 Highlights
It has been an incredible year for AFP thanks to the support of our generous members, sponsors, event attendees, speakers and leaders!

Here are a few highlights of 2019:

- We have 326 phenomenal members
- We had 15 mentor and mentee partnerships
- We presented 12 coffee chats with more than 228 attendees
- We presented 5 educational sessions, including one in Boulder and one in Lone Tree, with more than 290 attendees
- We launched the IDEA Cohort, with 5 amazing participants
- We sold out the Rocky Mountain Philanthropy Institute AND the National Philanthropy Day luncheon!

These accomplishments demonstrate the dedication to excellence in our fundraising community in Colorado, and the hunger for continued educational and networking opportunities. This is an amazing community of caring and talented professionals.

Congratulations AFP Community on a great year, and cheers to another one in 2020!

If you have suggestions for educational events, venues or other ideas, please share them anytime with info@afpcc.org.
