

Thursday Thoughts

Need To Raise Money At Your Fundraising Events?

Then this luncheon is for you! Join Debby Roth-Bush of Greater Giving for lunch on February 7th to discuss how to focus event attendees on what really matters - funding your organization's work!

Are your event night guests cross-eyed by the time you're asking them to support your cause? Help them focus in on what really matters-funding your work! During this session we will discuss: Top tips for a successful fund-a- need, how to market it in advance, creating an emotional appeal, and utilizing matching funds. We will also cover how technology can have a positive influence on the giving experience of your guests. Be sure to join us as we provide the clarity your event has been missing!

Mentorship Program - Applications Are Now Being Accepted!

The AFP Mentorship Program matches those interested in finding a professional mentor in the field with leaders in the field who volunteer to serve as mentors. Mentors can help provide professional advice on career growth, professional goals, brainstorming new ideas or tactics, having difficult conversations, and help make connections with others in the field. The program will kick off in March and run through August, is free of charge to AFP members, and takes just a few hours a month. Finding a good mentor may be one of the best career moves you can make!

If you are interested in serving as a mentor, or interested in finding a mentor, please apply here!
