Yes, Your Board Can Become a Top-

Notch Fundraising Team!

Every nonprofit board member can play a unique and important role in recruiting donors and friends to the cause. This is always essential, but more so than ever with resources stretched thin and needs greater than ever. At this interactive session, you'll learn how to mobilize board members to their fullest fundraising potential, and ensure they have fun doing it! You'll walk away with a menu of creative options for transforming your board into a top-notch fundraising team and the confidence to take the next step to fathom events and we will be stronger for it.

Make Change -- Speak at RMPI

Have you found new ways to serve your community despite the challenges our sector is facing during COVID? Share your expertise by speaking at AFP's annual fall conference, Rocky Mountain Philanthropic Institute! Whether you've developed new communications practices, HR policies, have remote working tips or ways of connecting with funders, we need to hear from leaders like you!

Speakers will each lead one breakout session, and will receive complementary admission for the entire conference. You do not need to have a presentation prepared in order to apply. Click here to learn more!
