Making Colorado's Nonprofits Stronger Than Ever

This year for the first time, the Rocky Mountain Philanthropy Institute will feature an interactive, state-wide discussion on creating stronger connections within and across nonprofits. As fundraisers, we can lead the way in breaking down the silos that hinder us from making more impact in our communities!

RMPI's Thursday afternoon session will be: Better Together: Summit on Creating Connections for Colorado.

We'll start the afternoon with stories from leaders in the field:

- Reggie Rivers, Former Denver Bronco, benefit auctioneer, and motivational speaker;
- Vu Le, Host of the Nonprofit AF blog and a passionate leader for social justice, and
- Ellen Reid, Executive Director of the Keystone Science School

We'll follow up those great first-hand accounts with a conversation about how we can all build stronger connections that will make our vision for Colorado come to life.

Come with your ideas and get ready to be inspired!
