

Title of Abstract

Jane A. Doe¹, Robert F. Doe², and John E. Doe²,

¹First affiliation (include full mailing address and e-mail address if desired)

²Second Affiliation (full mailing address and e-mail address if desired).

Introduction: AbSciCon2019 Abstract submission template & instructions. Replace all of these instructions in this template with the text of your abstract.

Section Head Sample: Please use the following format for your section heads: upper and lower case, bold, followed by a colon.

Level-two section head. Should be lower case and in italics.

Please make sure your paper size is set to U.S. letter, 8.5" × 11", page margins are set to be one inch on all sides. Text is in two even columns with alignment set to Justify. Fonts should be Times New Roman size 10pt, please note that some Macintosh systems will auto convert their font into New York and will need to manually be changed to Times New Roman.

Automatic paragraph indents of 0.25 inches are imbedded to appear every time you use a hard return.

If you are including tables or figures, they must be imported into this file as you will not be able to upload any additional documents with your abstract. All image formats are acceptable but figures should be kept to as small as possible to reduce the overall file size.

There is no specific word count limit for the abstract but the total length should not exceed 1 page, single sided.

References: Use the author-year format e.g., Lastname et al. (2018). References should appear in order by author last name. The following abbreviated style can be used:

Author, F. M. and Lastname, F. M. (2018) Astrobiology, 90, 1151–1154.

Lastname I. J. (2016) AAS/DPS48, Abstract #302.09.

Lastname F. M. et al. (2018) ApJ, 876,76.

Please DO NOT Submit Duplicates of Your Abstract; should you find it necessary to replace or modify your abstract PRIOR TO the submission deadline, re-turn to the abstract submission portion of the AbSciCon 2019 portal and click on the “Update” link that appears next to the title of the abstract you submitted.