

AIM Class Instruction questions

Fall 2019

1. Will reading material be posted on d2l? *

- Yes
- No

Additional Note or Comment

2. What are the required book(s) for this course? Please specify "UA Bookstore" if your list has already been submitted OR give the title, author and ISBN. (If there are no required books – please indicate that.)

3. If your textbook will include an online component for quizzes or assignments, please indicate what platform (McGraw Hill Connect, Pearson MyLab, etc.). Type "none" if not.

4. Will video material be used in your course? (ex: VoiceThread, YouTube links, pre-recorded lectures) *

- Yes (If possible, pick material that has accurate captions, not auto-generated.) (Specify Below)
- No

Additional Note or Comment

5. Will you be recording your in-person lectures to Panopto for students to review? *

- Yes
- No

Additional Note or Comment

6. Students can access course content via: *

- All written materials are available via the course website (online courses)
- Written content available to all students via PPT, class notes, lecture outlines or workbook
- I will provide written content to DRC students
- This course is discussion/activity-based (notes not required)
- I will not be providing students with lecture materials
- Other: (Specify Below)

Additional Note or Comment

7. Would you like the DRC to proctor your exams? *

- Yes – Please use our Instructor Login (links to form) and fill out a testing contract
- No – I will provide accommodations for my students
- No – Exams are completed online independently
- My class has no exams

Additional Note or Comment

8. Please describe your attendance policy: