

Mandates Don't Change Mindsets: Leveraging Existing Structures to Promote Systemic Change

- Amy Fisk, SUNY Geneseo
- Rebecca Mushtare, SUNY Oswego
- Lauren Rodriguez, SUNY System Administration
- Kim Scalzo, SUNY System Administration
- Jessica Sniatecki, SUNY Brockport

Mission of Public Higher Education

- Access
- Higher Education for the public good

“...provide to the people of New York educational services of the highest quality, with the broadest possible access, fully representative of all segments of the population...”

SUNY Mission and Priorities (1 of 2)

SUNY Mission and Priorities (2 of 2)

- Focus on Affordable Excellence
- Initiatives within the Four Pillars
 - Student Success
 - Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
 - Research and Scholarship
 - Economic Development and Upward Mobility

Federal and NYS Regulations/Laws

- ADA, with Title II Changes
- 504, with HHS Web Accessibility requirements
- NYS Law re: procurement of websites
- NYS Human Rights

This Work is Hard
We all face challenges.

Fireside Chat Topic 1

Raise visibility and promote urgency

Reflection Question 1

How have you (or how can you) establish a sense of urgency at your institution?

Fireside Chat Topic 2
Build Coalitions and Support Champions

Reflection Question 2

Who are possible allies and collaborators that you can invite to be a part of your guiding coalition?

Fireside Chat Topic 3

Establish a compelling vision for change

Reflection Question 3

How can you align your vision and strategy with your institutional mission?

Fireside Chat Topic 4
Sustain change for long-term impact

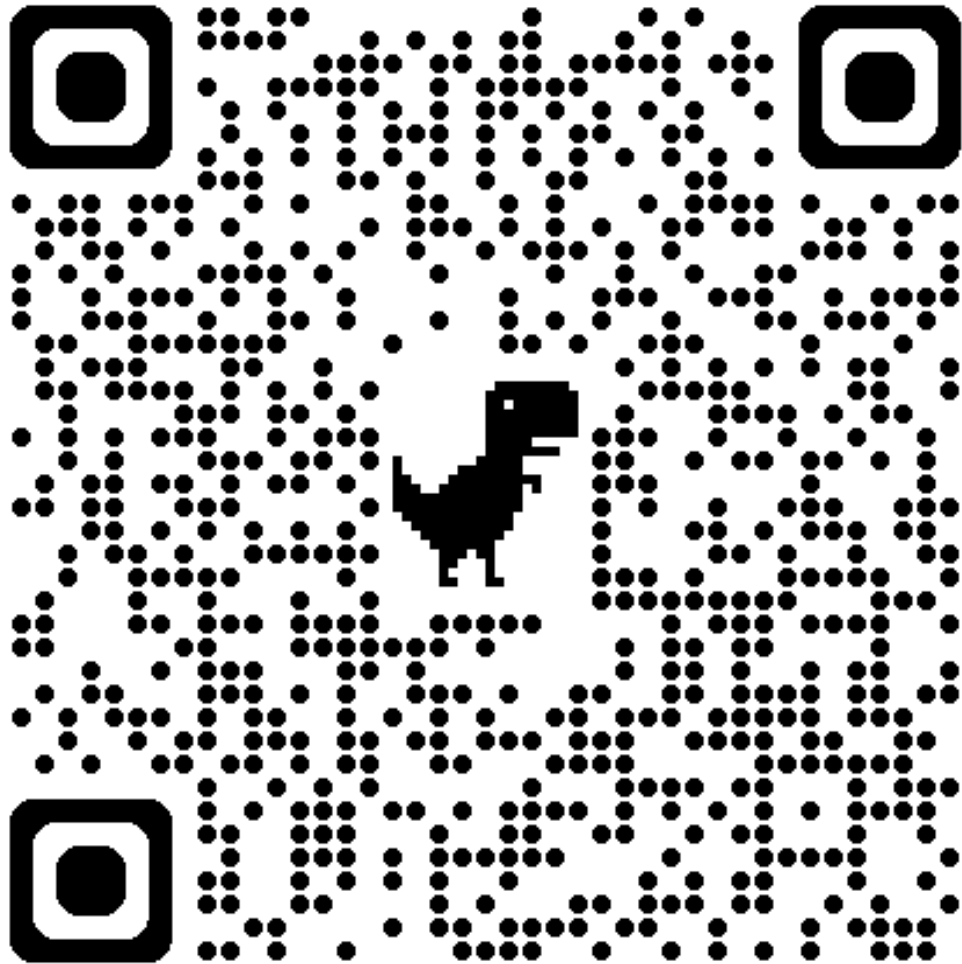

Reflection Question 4

What is something your institution has deeply engaged with that can be codified to make sure it “sticks”?

Questions

What additional questions do you have for us?

Session Evaluation

tiny.cc/8zu1101

Thank you for attending!

Your feedback helps shape future programming.