

The Value Leadership Group was founded and is led by Peter Schumacher a global expert in business strategy

From the USA, Peter Schumacher is a global entrepreneur and trusted advisor to decision-makers around the world. Peter started his career in management consulting with CSC Index where he worked with international thought leaders, and managed complex strategy and change projects for large corporations in the USA and Europe. At the Value Leadership Group his work addresses strategic and operational issues in the areas of global delivery models, growth, corporate strategy, operational excellence, organizational transformation, alliances, and business model innovation.

His previous experience includes building an innovative global logistics business in Japan, cross-border M&A, international alliances, turnaround management, and working with professors from the Harvard Business School and Darden to accelerate the growth of a top management consultancy focused on brand-driven growth strategies.

Peter has more than 10 years of experience with India. He is a member of the global editorial board for the Indian Management Review, the leading management journal in India. His research has been published, he has contributed to books, he is a frequent speaker and is quoted in the international business press.

Peter holds an MBA in finance and strategy from the Leonard N. Stern School of Business at New York University. He graduated from Virginia Commonwealth University with a B.S. in Business Magna Cum Laude.
