

The Core: Leadership, Infrastructure, Futures a division of the American Library Association Board of Directors

Adopts the following

RESOLUTION

honoring

Sheila Intner

Whereas, the American Library Association (ALA) and the broader library community lost a valued member and leader on October 22, 2023, with the death of Sheila S. Intner; and

Whereas, Sheila Intner was a distinguished professor of multiple library and information sciences programs, teaching throughout the US, Europe, Asia, and the Middle East; and

Whereas, she was a renowned author, writing and editing 29 books, countless journal columns and articles, and presented numerous papers specializing in cataloging and collection development; and

Whereas, she was active in professional organizations, serving as President of ALA's Association for Library Collections and Technical Services (ALCTS) and Online Audiovisual Catalogers (OLAC) Network; and

Whereas, she was dedicated to leadership in librarianship, being the recipient of numerous awards, including the Margaret Mann Citation, the Distinguished Alumna Award of Queens College's GSLIS, the OLAC award, and the New England Technical Services Librarian (NETSL) Award; and

Whereas, Whereas she finished her library career at Mt. Holyoke College as the founding director and professor at Simmons' GSLIS MLS program;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Core Board of Directors on behalf of its members;

1. honors the memory of Sheila S. Intner, celebrates her lifelong commitment to librarianship and the American Library Association and member divisions; and
2. extends its sincerest condolences to her family, friends, and colleagues.

Adopted this 17th day of December, 2024, by the Core: Leadership, Infrastructure, Futures, a division of the American Library Association, Board of Directors.
