About the Core DEI Committee

Came in being after LLAMA, LITA, & ALCTS joined to be 1 division in 2020

Charge:
• Establishes and maintains anti-racism, diversity, and inclusion as fundamental principles of Core;
• Articulates the desired facets of anti-racism, diversity, and inclusion within Core;
• Proposes appropriate goals for anti-racism, diversity, and inclusion in Core membership, participation, and programming and metrics for measuring success;
• Advises and coordinates with other Core committees, project teams, and the governing board on strategies to meet these goals;
• Coordinates with other groups within ALA on EDI issues in the library workplace;
• Reports annually to the governing board on the Committee's progress.

Projects:
• DEI Directory
• Developing a Liaison Program for Core Committees
• Collaborating on a Core Diversity Statement
• Supporting members professional development and initiatives through programming
• Surveying Core members to inform Committee and Division directions

If you’re interested in getting involved or learning more contact the Co-Chairs or submit a volunteer form through Core
Goals

To learn about the perceptions and aspirations of Core membership towards the Division’s priorities for advancing our agenda with respect to ADEI.

Definitions

Accessibility: When a person with a disability or disabilities is afforded the opportunity to acquire the same information, engage in the same interactions, and enjoy the same services as a person without disabilities, in an equally integrated and equally effective manner, with substantially equivalent ease of use. (adapted from Office for Civil Rights (OCR) at the U.S. Department of Education definition)

Diversity: The range of differences that may exist between members of a community, including race and ethnicity, gender and gender identity, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, language, culture, national origin, religion, age, and (dis)ability status. (adapted from Association of American Colleges and Universities definition)

Equity: The guarantee of fair treatment, access, opportunity, and advancement for all members of a community, to be achieved by identifying and eliminating barriers that prevent full participation of some groups. (adapted from Association of American Colleges and Universities definition)

Inclusion: Inclusion is the active, intentional, and ongoing engagement with diversity—in individuals and in the communities (intellectual, social, cultural, geographical) with which individuals might connect—in ways that increase one’s awareness, content knowledge, cognitive sophistication, and empathic understanding of the complex ways individuals interact within systems and institutions. (adapted from Association of American Colleges and Universities definition)

What, if any, barriers have you noticed in this organization to the advancement of ADEI?

Themes

- Lack of diversity within org leadership/membership
  - "Groundwater theory...we have to change our culture from the inside. There just aren't many POC in our organization as there aren't in our profession so that POC feel that librarianship is for them."
  - "I haven't noticed any specific barriers, but there are few members representing marginalized groups, and few of those in positions of leadership."

- Inaction to address ADEI by organizations
  - "There is a lot of talk but not much actually gets done."

- General divide and perceptions of "professionalism"
  - "Huge ship, hard to turn around, resistant older/conservative/racist members."
  - "I am a member, but I am not a librarian. I am library staff. My voice isn't "qualified" enough to listen to."

- Accessibility
  - "Accessibility at conferences continues to be a problem."
  - "Every time I've requested a disability accommodation I have been met with great resistance"
  - "Particularly in regards to programming and conferences, these are returning to in-person only with few to no scholarship options"

- Conservative viewpoints
  - "There is no authentic diversity of view point. Moderate/conservative perspectives are unwelcome and shouted down. I am not allowed to express the belief that libraries are/should be places of true neutrality."
  - "I no longer believe that PLA - or Core, or ALA - respects truly neutral, nonjudgmental librarianship. If you don't toe the line advocating for The Current Thing you are treated like a pariah."
What, if any, supports have you noticed in this organization for the advancement of ADEI?

Themes

- Programming
  - "Encouraging ADEI focused programs, supporting diversity fellow programs"
- Mentorship & Leadership
  - "I have seen more of a shift in recent years to increasing diversity in membership and leadership, but it is unclear what specific methods are being employed towards this effort, or how sustainable/meaningful those efforts will be."
- Organizational Structures
  - Community driven code of conduct; conference harassment monitors; scholarships for underrepresented groups.
  - "They have a DEI committee and have and promote DEI training."
- Networking
  - Networking with the other national associations of librarians of color (NALCos): REFORMA, APALA, AILA, and CALA for the advancement of ADEI. Partnering with the Joint Council of Librarians of Color, Inc. (JCLC). Working with local and regional groups to advance ADEI.
Core Stats - Are you a member of one or more committees within Core?

Core Stats - Are you active in one or more interest groups within Core?
What do you consider to be the highest priorities for ADEI work within Core? (Select up to three.)

- Anti-racism work
- Diversity of membership
- Diversity of Core staff and leadership (Membership or outreach to members from underrepresented groups)
- Programming and events for professional development in ADEI
- Equity auditing and accountability within Core
- Supporting ADEI-focused research (Programming in support of social justice or racial justice)
- Public statements in support of social justice or racial justice
- Inclusive organizational culture within Core
- Other: (write in)

What strategies do you recommend that Core use in service of these priorities?
What strategies do you recommend that Core use in service of these priorities?

State the Values (Which may mean promote the values we have) & Set Goals
Mentor underrepresented
Help members find a path to engagement
Be diverse and inclusive and outreach to other organizations more proactively!
CE and programming opportunities related to ADEI to help members grow
Discussion and Visibility
Disability & Accessibility work - bring people together professionally, keep it in mind
PAY those doing the work (wonder if this is speaking to the ALA policy of that ALA is service to the profession and volunteering, no honoraria)

Overall, what does success look like for Core's ADEI initiatives? What would a truly accessible, diverse, equitable, and inclusive organization look like to you?
Overall, what does success look like for Core’s ADEI initiatives? What would a truly accessible, diverse, equitable, and inclusive organization look like to you?

“Core would be recognized as a leading advocate for ADEI within the profession.”

“Our profession represents quite a few diverse groups. Helping CORE to be more reflective of our profession’s diversity, including leadership, will mean success.”

“I would like a hybrid approach to meetings with both online and in-person options to accommodate disabled people and those vulnerable to Covid-19.”

“Everyone is treated fairly and equally. Members are heard and supported. Intolerance, hate, and prejudice are not tolerated or excused. People are held accountable for their actions. Members have access to spaces where their talents and skills can be effectively utilized.”

“Where no one would pay attention to an individual’s race, ethnicity, orientation, gender, etc. and instead would focus on improving library services for the public.”

“At the risk of stating the obvious, it would be accessible to all, truly representative, deal equitably, and actively promote inclusive policies. In other words, conform to clearly stated and universally understood values.”
