Farewell and Fair Weather: Bon Voyage, Sisters!

Can we all agree it's been a whirlwind of fun, learning, and sisterhood? It's hard to believe it's over—it seems it's just begun! We hope you were inspired this morning by our EE speaker (I think it's safe to say it was motivational!) and that you are eager for the next “voyage” to Spokane for International Convention. Since it's late for your editors, we wanted to give you a tiny glimpse of the banquet when we all looked so beautiful. Hollie Citerone, our NER editor, and Vicki Schoenly, our SER editor, will be producing a more comprehensive follow-up edition of The Beacon once we are home with lots more pictures. Look for it in a couple of weeks, but until then, thanks for all your comments, pictures, and support! Bon Voyage! ~~ Hollie and Vicki
