CHARTER OF THE SURVEY RESEARCH METHODS SECTION OF THE AMERICAN STATISTICAL ASSOCIATION

Section established in 1978
Charter revised 2019

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this organization is the Survey Research Methods Section (hereafter called the “Section”) of the American Statistical Association (hereafter called the “Association”).

ARTICLE II. OBJECTIVES

The Survey Research Methods Section is for Association members who research survey methodology or employ survey methods as a prime tool of investigation. Some areas of special interest are:

1. Design and execution of sample surveys.
2. Analysis and presentation of survey data.
4. Publication of developments and findings in survey research.
5. Standards of design, estimation, and reporting of surveys.
6. Promotion of uniform survey terminology.
7. Use of survey research procedures and findings to inform public policy, including relations between public and private agencies in the design, conduct, and presentation of findings of surveys.
8. Ethics relating to the conduct of survey research and to respondents and potential respondents.

ARTICLE III. FUNCTIONS

The primary function of the Survey Research Methods Section is to encourage research and advance knowledge in survey research methodology, endeavoring:

1. To stimulate the preparation and publication of articles and reports dealing with survey methodology.
2. To disseminate work on survey research methodology to a wider audience within the Association, in the scientific community, and among the public, by fostering liaison with persons and organizations publishing papers and monographs on topics of interest in survey methodology.
3. To sponsor topic-oriented workshops, short courses, and conferences of interest to survey researchers.
4. To develop and publicize standards for the design, conduct, and reporting of surveys, and for the assessment and evaluation of survey practices.
5. To provide expert review of articles submitted for publication involving survey research methodology.

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP AND DUES

Membership in the Section shall be open to all members of the Association who indicate an interest in the activities of the Section by payment of Section dues. The Section's membership year will coincide with that of the member's membership year in the Association.

Section dues will be determined by the Executive Committee of the Section.

ARTICLE V. OFFICERS AND TERMS OF OFFICE

All officers must be Section members. The officers of the Section shall be elected by the membership and consist of the Chair, the Chair-Elect, the Past Chair, the Program Chair, the Program Chair-Elect, the Secretary, the Treasurer, the Publications Officer, the Education Officer, and one or more Representatives to the Council of Sections.

The term of office for the Secretary, Treasurer, Publications Officer, and Education Officer shall be two years. The term of office for the Chair, Chair-Elect, Past Chair, Program Chair, and Program Chair-Elect shall be one year. The Chair-Elect, Chair, and Program Chair-Elect shall automatically succeed the Chair, Past Chair, and Program Chair, respectively, at the annual change of offices, which shall occur on January 1. The term of office for Representatives to the Council of Sections shall be as specified in the Charter of the Council of Sections. An individual may hold no more than one office within the Section at a given time.

No member shall be eligible for immediate re-election to the same office except a Secretary, a Treasurer, Publications Officer, or an Education Officer. A Past Chair shall not be eligible for immediate re-election to the office of Chair-Elect, and a Program Chair shall not be eligible for immediate re-election to the office of Program Chair-Elect. A Representative to the Council of Sections whose first term was not a full term or whose term was shortened due to election to the Governing Board of the Council of Sections shall be eligible for immediate re-election.

In the event of a vacancy in the office of Chair, the Chair-Elect shall become Chair for the balance of the vacated term in addition to the term for which the Chair-Elect was elected. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Program Chair, the Program Chair-Elect shall succeed for a similar term. If the office of Past Chair becomes vacant, it shall remain vacant until filled by the current Chair at the beginning of the following year. In the case of a vacancy in any one of the other elective offices, the Section Nominations Committee shall make a nomination(s). For these other elective offices, any nominee shall not be a member of the current Executive Committee. Appointments shall be by a majority vote of the Executive Committee. The person so chosen shall serve for the remainder of the vacated term.
ARTICLE VI. COMMITTEES

The Committees of the Section shall consist of Standing Committees as provided by this Charter, and Standing and Current Committees as established by the officers of the Section. Current Committees may be established in order to satisfy a particular need or interest of the Section. A quorum of 50% of voting members must be present at official meetings for all committees, and an opportunity for discussion of matters requiring vote must be allowed. Formal motions and financial disbursements must occur during official meetings of committees.

The Executive Committee of the section shall consist of its officers. The Executive Committee shall manage the affairs of the Section. The Section Chair, with the advice and approval of Executive Committee, may designate committees to carry out the functions of the section.

Committee on Nominations. Each year, the following year’s Chair-Elect shall serve as chair of the Committee on Nominations. The other two members of the Committee are the current Chair and current Chair-Elect. The Committee on Nominations shall make the nominations for offices of the Section that will become vacant at the end of the following year. In addition to the nominees of the committee, any Section member nominated by petition of 5% or more members of the Section shall also appear on the annual ballot. Such a petition must be presented by one of the petitioners to the Secretary of the Association and the Section Chair on or before the Association’s due date for nominations.

ARTICLE VII. NOMINATION AND ELECTION

On or before the Association deadline each year, the Section's Committee on Nominations shall submit, to the Secretary of the Association and the Section Chair, at least two nominations for each vacancy to be filled. All nominees are to be included in the Association's annual mail ballot for the election of Association and Section officers. All balloting procedures for Section officers shall conform to those used in balloting for Association officers.

ARTICLE VIII. MEETINGS

The annual business meeting, open to all members and other interested parties, shall be held in connection with the annual meeting of the Association and shall be announced in advance in the printed or electronic program of the annual meeting. The officers may also conduct business with section members by mail, telephone, or other electronic means.

ARTICLE IX. AMENDMENTS

Amendments to this charter may be proposed by the officers of the Section, or via a petition signed by at least five percent of the membership of the Section and submitted to the Section Chair. The proposed amendment shall be submitted to the members of the Section for a vote at the time of the Association’s annual election.
If approved by a majority of members voting, the amendment shall take effect immediately, or at such other time as specified in the amendment. Copies of approved amendments shall be filed with the Secretary of the Council of Sections and with the Secretary of the Association.
