Interest Group Activities

Please respond to the following questions about activities your interest group promoted or completed between January 1 and December 31, 2023.

An interest group performing well is one that is (1) engaging with their membership, (2) delivering services and resources that benefit current members per interest group charter objectives, and (3) promoting activities to attract new members. Overall, how does the interest group executive committee rate the interest group’s performance in 2023?

- [ ] Excellent
- [ ] Very good
- [ ] Good
- [ ] Fair
- [ ] Poor

If your executive committee graded interest group performance at Good or below, please explain why and how the COSGB can help your section perform better:
