

2026 Nomination Form
Julius Shiskin Award for Economic Statistics
Nominations must be received by April 17, 2026

The Award honors unusually original and important contributions in the development of economic statistics or in the use of economic statistics in interpreting the economy. Contributions can be in development of new statistical measures, statistical research, use of economic statistics to analyze and interpret economic activity, development of statistical tools, management of statistical programs, or application of data production techniques. Individuals and groups in the public or private sector from any country can be nominated. Nominees must be living at time of nomination.

In addition to this nomination form, please provide the following materials:

- A detailed nomination letter that describes the specific contributions or research work upon which your nomination is based. It is important to explain the significance of this work in relation to contributions in the development of economic statistics or in the use of economic statistics.
- A curriculum vitae (C.V.) for the nominee.
- Name, e-mail address, and a phone number for up to three colleagues who can support the nomination. The Julius Shiskin Award Committee will follow-up with the supporting nominators for a short letter that describes how the nominee's work has contributed to his/her own work or the work of their organizations. Support by colleagues outside the nominee's organization is strongly encouraged.
- Any other documentation that may be useful in evaluating the nominee's contributions.

Please send all materials—nomination form, nomination letter, C.V., and list of supporters—in Word or PDF format to Julius Shiskin Award Committee at the email address: shiskinawrd@gmail.com
